

Doctor of Ministry in Preaching (D.Min.)

Cip Code: 39.0699

- 30 Credit Hour degree
  - $660^ per Credit Hour ($19,800^ for total per credit hour fee {30 hours})
  - $195<sup>**</sup> per semester for student fees
  - $125* per course (books/supplies)
  - $95<sup>***</sup>/$405<sup>****</sup> Intensive fees
- Takes 4-6 years to complete the program (cohort format)
- Upon completion of the degree, the DMin graduate will be able to:
  - Quality preaching that effectively creates connections between scripture and a real-life assembly;
  - A habit of preaching preparation grounded in solid biblical exegesis, congregational analysis, sound communication, theory, prayer, and awareness of liturgical context proper to the student's denomination;
  - A habit of preaching evaluation grounded in congregational and peer feedback;
  - A doctoral-level understanding of how the discipline of preaching intersects with and can be enhanced by other related disciplines (namely, systematic theology, biblical hermeneutics, liturgy, history, and communications theory);
  - The ability to conduct both academic and qualitative field research toward addressing a particular problem or opportunity in the discipline of preaching resulting in a thesis project;
  - Skills for collaboration with others in the service of the Ministry of the Word.
- In the years 2011, 2012, and 2013, 20 total students graduated from the DMin program.
  - 0 took an average of 18 credit hours or more per a year and completed their degree in an average of N/A years.
  - 20 took an average of less than 18 credit hours per a year and completed their degree in an average of 6.0 years.
- Occupations
  - Clergy and lay Ecclesial Ministers
  - Postsecondary Teachers
  - Religious Workers, All Others

^ Tuition per credit hour is subject to change

*Estimated

**Student Fees are subject to change

***Commuter price

****Motherhouse guest price

#School does not offer Room and Board